Around the Square

Almost every time this column mentions Sierra Madre's beautiful weather—a blue sky, or a sun-washed street—you know what happens? The day of publication it rains. It pours. The whole countryside shakes with thunder, lightning and flood.

During the beautiful weather recently (do we hear thunder now?) we've envied the men whose work is mostly outdoors at Chevron, Richfield, Shell, Union, and Hinchaw service stations. We've also glanced enviously through our window at passers-by such as Larry Garland, T. W. Neale, Harry Lange, Noren Eaton and others who pause for a moment of refreshment in the sun, enroute their busy errands. Wise men. They keep in touch with the town by stopping occasionally to talk with their neighbors on the sunny streets. (Okay. Get out your raincoats.)

Woodson Jones had the interior of his office painted recently. Felt mighty happy about it, too—until he reached for the telephone. That's when he discovered that the phone numbers covering one entire wall had been painted out. A perfect blank. Seems he seldom used a telephone book. But he does now.

Tom Henderson, former Forest Ranger of this vicinity, and Harold Roberts, who harbors the Green Frog, recently returned from a five-day trip to the Colorado River, between Flagstaff and Needles. Looking fit and well fed on their return, they reported that catfish and bluegills were biting at almost anything. (Wonder what the fish section of Roberts meat department is selling these days?)

Speaking of downtowners, we ran across Sam Perlot the other night, closing the Royal Drug at a late hour. We asked if the lateness were due to his recent addition of the News Stand next door.

"There's nothing too unusual about this," he said. "I've worked 14 hours a day at this pharmacy many a time."

Nodding through the new gap in the wall to the acquisition which has doubled his space we thought we were making a light-hearted remark when he said: "If that's the case, you may soon be working 28 hours a day."

"Could be," Sam replied. (Trouble was, he meant it.)

CROWLING VISITS KIWANIS

J. M. Cromling, general manager of the Sierra Madre Pottery Company, was the guest speaker at the Kiwanis luncheon last Tuesday, Jan. 13. After describing the means by which the company makes ceramics, he gave away ceramic ashtrays as samples of the work.

Stuart McComb Takes Over Pasadena School Position

At its regular meeting last Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 13, the Pasadena Board of Education formally enacted the appointment of Dr. Stuart F. McComb as superintendent of Pasadena City Schools.

The proceedings followed indications previously announced by the board Jan. 7 at an informal open meeting. The action touched off a threatened recall move of two board members.

Local citizens, interested in Sierra Madre's own student housing problems, have followed the developments closely.

Howell N. White, Jr., president of Sierra Madre School Board, stated: "The most important single function of any school board is the selection of a superintendent of schools. The Pasadena board has made an excellent choice in Dr. McComb. The Pasadena board and Dr. McComb deserve the support of every citizen."

Mrs. Tom Willis, active in Sierra Madre civic affairs: "I feel that the board, in taking decisive action, is making a step forward."

Severin L. Sorensen, chairman of the Educational Research Committee, and past president of the PTA, expressed his views. "We helped to elect the Pasadena School Board. I am sure they have an awareness of the problems. They must have considered all candidates most carefully before making a decision. We shall support them in their action

Shippey Shows Polio Could Happen Here

Lee Shippey, one of Sierra Madre's better known writers, tells the story of Chuckie Thomas of Sierra Madre in relation to the current March of Dimes campaign against the dreadful disease of polio:

Chuckie Thomas walked again at Christmas. That was the big thrill for a lot of us. In 1951 the baby had just learned to walk and was proud of the achievement, when he was stricken by polio. For a year he was in the Sister Kenney Hospital, tied down on his bed most of the time to keep him from misusing his useless leg. Even though he has to walk with a brace now, it is wonderful to see the bright, happy little fellow walking.

If it hadn't been for the March of Dimes Chuckie might never have walked again. The March of Dimes has every great medical school and hospital in America studying polio. That research has developed many improved ways of treating the stricken disease and seems close to finding a way to prevent it. March of Dimes contributions to hospitals enable them to give wonderful care. Such care as Chuckie and hundreds of others in this county received last year would have cost more than $30 a day, per patient, if it were not for the system and the vast amount of unpaid effort the March of Dimes makes possible. No ordinary family could stand that. That system cuts the average cost down to around $20 a day, of which the patients' families pay what they can. The March of Dimes sees to it that the patients get the care, whether they can pay for it or not.

Last year, thank God, there were no new cases of polio in Sierra Madre. But there were so many in the county that the March of Dimes spent far more

THE YOUNG MAN WITH THE BRACE ON HIS LEG, and a smile on his face is Charles Robert Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Thomas, 231 W. Carter. Better known as "Chuckie," he will be three in March. At the age of one he was a healthy child who was trying to learn to walk. Then polio struck. After one year in Sister Kenney's Hospital in El Monte he returned home, and started all over again. He still falls down occasionally, and yesterday he was given a larger brace, but he has developed a sense of humor that enables him to laugh—and keep trying. Through facilities made possible by the March of Dimes, he has fought through the dread disease that most people think can never happen to them—but too often does. The March of Dimes—and "Chuckie"—are eager to change all that.

Van Iersel To Be Inaugural Guest

Louis M. Van Iersel of Sierra Madre, winner of the Congressional Medal of Honor, has been invited by the Presidential Inaugural Committee to participate in the Inaugural Ceremonies in Washington, D. C., Jan. 20. Mayor Fletcher Bowron of Los Angeles, congratulating Van Iersel in a recent letter wrote in part as follows:

"It is entirely fitting that you should be thus honored, and on behalf of all the residents of this community I congratulate you on this well-deserved recognition of the distinguished service you have rendered to our country."

"We in the city service who know your record are proud to number you among our fellow workers, and as Mayor of the City of Los Angeles I take great pleasure in designating you as the City's representative to the Presidential Inauguration Ceremonies."

Van Iersel, who was one of the most decorated men in World War I, will fly to Washington to attend the inauguration of President-elect Eisenhower next Tuesday.

A native of Holland, Van Iersel came to the United States in 1917 and joined the Army. One of the feats he performed was in 1918 when he swam a river, talked to a German machine-gunner, discovered the enemy's position, and learned that a heavy barrage was to be launched at dawn. This information, his officers estimated, saved more than 1000 American casualties.

Van Iersel enlisted in the Marines in World War II and served more than three years in the Pacific area.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Iersel, who have lived in Sierra Madre for the past eight years, reside at 134 E. Montecito. They have three sons: John, who lives with his wife and three children at 171 N. Adams; Sebas-

City Council Hears Plan To Expand Television Area Here

Pioneer Days May Return To Aid Pool Fund

"Pioneer Days" may return to Sierra Madre! The former spring event may return to the month-of-May scene by a different name, but whatever the title the idea behind it will be to make a profit that can be contributed towards the construction of a community swimming pool at City Park.

The new name of the spring festival, now being considered by the Sierra Madre Recreation Commission as a fund-raising project for the pool, may be "The Sierra Madre Country Fair," but according to Ralph "Pappy" Welch who is sparking the campaign for a city pool, titles won't make much difference so long as the results are successful.

This subject was spotlighted at the meeting of the Recreation Commission last Thursday evening in City Hall. During the session, Recreation Director Philip Mitchell reported that bids were now being received by City School for new lighting that would be of importance in developing the school's evening sports programs.

Before the meeting adjourned, a tentative date was set for a "Kickoff Dinner" for the pool—a $10-per-plate affair with dancing and other entertainment—to be held some time in March or April.

The following Monday, Jan.

NEW EDITION!

This edition of the Sierra Madre News marks the inauguration of the Hastings Ranch Edition.

News of the Hastings area activities will, starting with this issue, appear in the Ranch edition in sections devoted exclusively to news of the Upper and Lower Hastings Ranch residents.

The Upper and Lower Hastings columns, formerly carried in the News, have now been incorporated in the "Hastings Ranch News" section of the Ranch edition.

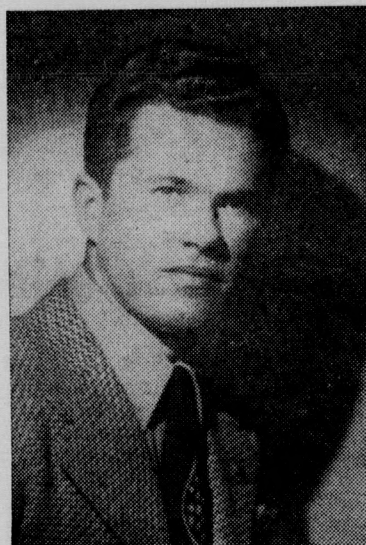

We have taken this step in order to devote the space in the News more completely to Sierra Madre activities.

News concerning the general area will be carried in both editions.

All classified and display advertising will appear identically in both editions.

TV TOWNE OPENS HERE TOMORROW

Jesse Thompson, owner of Thompson's TV Towne, has announced that his store will be officially open to the public tomorrow, Jan. 16.

Besides a variety of stock that includes records, tape recorders and record players, "TV Towne" at 187 W. Sierra Madre boulevard features a first-line selection of some of the country's best known television sets.

As a communication technician in the Armed Forces for five years, and a former student at USC in Electronic Engineering, Thompson has been trained in various phases of electronics.

Local Television Dealers Say Master Antenna System Works

The problems of television were more than "ghosts" or eye-shaking screen tremors last Tuesday night at City Council when Ed Meyer and Ben McGee of Meyer Brothers Television brought up a subject that is dear to the hearts of every television fan. Meaning, of course, the $64 question: "How can I get better reception?"

Almost anyone could wonder what business this is of City Council's, but when Ben McGee spoke his piece after the reading of a letter from Meyer Brothers it became evident that there is much the council can do to help improve local television reception.

Meyer Brothers claim they have brought successful television reception into previously "dead" areas through the installing of a Master Antenna System. The system, however, often requires stringing a wire across a street—which sounds simple enough, except for one thing. It's against the law.

City ordinance 342 prohibits all items that could be considered an obstruction to a street, and a wire is one of them.

All members of City Council, including those who say they don't like television, were in sympathy with the Meyer Brothers' request for permission to string wires above certain streets, but it was said that City Attorney Guy Coryn would have to check the legal aspects of the situation, as well as to discover what other cities are doing in similar cases, before ordinance 342 could be suitably amended.

In other words, television fans—as well as Meyer Brothers—will have to wait. The council indicated, however, that a new law would be made to improve the situation in a manner that would be fair to all

After a little girl has received 20 satisfactory marks she is able to "adopt" a doll of her own. She must take good care of her doll over a probationary period and then she receives formal adoption papers for her "child."

After a little boy has made 20 good marks he receives a very special "honor" gift which he may keep. All toys borrowed must be returned in good condition in order to receive an "S" on their membership card.

Money for support of the library comes through the Sierra Madre Red Feather Community Funds. Toy Loan is one of the activities of the Los Angeles County Federation of Community Coordinating Councils.

LIONS TO HEAR TALK BY SOCIAL SECURITY GUEST

The Sierra Madre Lions Club is featuring a talk by Joe Tarbox, assistant manager of Pasadena Office of the Social Security Administration, tonight, Jan. 15, at 7:15. Because of many changes in the old age and survivors insurance and coverage of the self employed, this information is expected to be most timely.

Mr. Tarbox has promised to explain payments to retired persons and to the widows and children of deceased wage earners or self employed individuals.

The program will star Cliffie Stone, Hank Penny, and the "Squeakin' Deacon," with more than 200 entertainers, plus 12 national champions in Instrumental Drum Majorettes.

Red Cross Staff of 50 to Assist Blood Bank Donors

Every kind of personal attention to make the blood donor comfortable will be offered by the 16 professional staffers and more than 25 local Red Cross volunteers at the Woman's Clubhouse next Wednesday, Jan. 21, when the Mobile Unit of the Blood Bank comes to town.

All persons in good health, who are between the ages of 21 to 59, are eligible to make their blood contributions to "the most vital bank in the world." E. Waldo Ward, chairman of the Sierra Madre Chapter of the American Red Cross, has expressed the hope that at least 200 "depositors" will respond to Blood Bank's appeal for the precious plasma. To encourage a good turn-out, baby sitters and transportation will be supplied to those who need them.

Ward explains that the call for blood and plasma is urgent not only for the Armed Forces and veterans' hospitals, but also for civilian use. If, and when, immediate needs are met, it is still necessary to accumulate an adequate reserve supply for unforeseen, emergency conditions.

Donors must weigh at least 110 pounds. Before the donation, all donors are thoroughly checked for temperature, pulse, blood pressure, and hemoglobin content in a careful screening by the doctor or nurse in charge.

The Sierra Madreans, experienced in this work, who will assist the professional staff are: Mrs. M. L. Murray, Mrs. Harold Roberts, Mrs. H. C. Stroup, Mrs. A. J. Barkman, Mrs. George Osborn, Mrs. Paul Burton, Mrs. C. F. Adam, Mrs. Laura Christman, Mrs. Sewall Clark, Mrs. Henry A. Nelson, Mrs. Leo H. Meyer, Col. Charles E. Morrison, R. C. Lewis, Mrs. John Conzelman, Mrs. Jerry Fairfield, Mrs. Marjorie Ellis, Mrs. Sam Haskins, Mrs. J. W. Moore, Miss Jean Woodward, Mrs. Paul Campion, Mrs. Noren Eaton, Mrs. Harold Drury, Mrs. James Bowman, Mrs. E. W. Carver, Mrs. Victor Woehler, Mrs. Ralph Jones and others whose names were not available at time of listing.

HERE'S AN ACTION SHOT OF A YOUNG MAN WHO IS ABOUT TO FLY THROUGH THE AIR with the greatest of ease, during a recent tumbling class at City School. It is being supervised by Sierra Madre's Recreation Director Philip Mitchell, who barely got into the picture at far left. These classes have been a regular feature at City School since last fall, but the mat beneath the boys is now making its debut publicitywise. It is one of four recently purchased so that City School would no longer have to borrow such equipment from Pasadena schools. In spite of problems that increase with the growth of student population here, the youngsters still manage to have fun with their instructive sports. Those shown in the picture are: Tommy Burgess, Tony Torres, Marc Yasskin, Allan Hurwitt (standing behind Marc), Mike Weston, Gary Pickett and Steve Straten who is about to jump over Greg Avedesian. Allan Hurwitt is a member of the gym team coached by Sierra Madrean Sam Schwartz at Marshall Junior High, who had come to City School for the afternoon to assist with the tumbling class.

Today California growers produce 99 per cent of all the olives grown in America, thanks to the suitability of the state's soil for this ancient fruit tree.

During the month of October 1952, an average of one new polio case was reported every two hours in Los Angeles County.

Purpose of the sale, which will feature baked goods, is to raise $100 to buy new room equipment that can not be made by fathers of the group. All parents of the association will be cooking and contributing to the sale as their donation to the project.

Mrs. Robert Bettencourt, chairman of the committee in charge of the sale, has announced that the list of baked goods will include pies, cakes, cookies and breads.

ARTS-LETTERS GROUP MEETS

The Pasadena Chapter of the National Society of Arts and Letters will present a travel and musical program Wednesday evening, Jan. 21, at 7:30 o'clock in the Stratford House of the Shakespeare Club in Pasadena.

World Religion Told By Mrs. McCormack

Mrs. F. Joseph McCormack, 823 Canyon Crest drive, will speak on "The Birth of World Religion" at 8 p.m. next Sunday, Jan. 18, at the Alhambra Woman's Club, 204 S. Second, Alhambra.

Foothill Jewish Women Plan Lunch

The Women's Division of the Foothill Jewish Community Center will hold its regular meeting on Jan. 20, at the Center, Lima and Laurel, in the form of a happy birthday luncheon, honoring the birthdays of all those present, and tying the year's coming events into the candle lighting program.

Mrs. Max Brezinsky and Mrs. Joseph Statler, luncheon hostesses, have announced that luncheon will be served from 12:30 p.m. Following the program a social afternoon has been planned.

THE TWO PRETTY LASSES above have been chosen as Miss Shrdlu and Miss Etaoin of National Printing Week. They honor the line type, and their names symbolize the pi line that an operator makes when he flicks his finger down the keys to fill a dead line of type.

Printing Week Pays Tribute to Newspapers

"Newspapers are not only the backbone of the gigantic arts industries, but are the main means of educating the public, protecting our freedoms, and insuring that our nation shall continue to grow and expand under our free enterprise system."

This was the statement of Rod Freeman, general chairman of the vicinity's observance of International Printing Week, which comes to a close Saturday, Jan. 17, as he paid tribute to all Southland newspapers, and to the other phases of the huge printing industry.

"Each year International Printing Week is observed to coincide with the birthday of Benjamin Franklin, the patron saint of all American printers."

"Without newspapers and other types of printing, the Bible, the Declaration of Independence and other great documents would be known to only a few. The housewife would not know what products to buy because there would be no labels. Our children would have no school books to help them become better citizens. Printing is indeed the mortar which holds together all of America," Freeman concluded.

Printing Week observances include displays in the Los Angeles County Museum, public libraries, including the Huntington Library, and colleges.

ARCH L. FIELD, transportation company president, former supervising auditor for the state, and long an active Masonic fraternalist, is the 1953 illustrious Potentate of Al Malikah Temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

Following election to the highest office in the great Shrine body, at the annual meeting of the temple held recently in Los Angeles, illustrious Noble Field was installed as successor to Potentate Charles T. Reichert.

WILSON INVITES PARENTS' VISIT FOR 'SPOTLIGHT'

January 21 is the seventh grade "Spotlight Day" for Wilson Junior High School. On this day all seventh grade parents are invited to come to school with their children for the entire day or any part of it.

Parents who have already participated in other such days report that it is a rewarding experience in understanding just what makes up a typical day for their son or daughter. Those parents planning to lunch in the cafeteria are asked to call the office to make reservations.

Tomorrow, Jan. 16 is the date for another one of Wilson's popular dances. This dance, sponsored by the G.A.A. and the 10th grade Y-Teens will be called the "Rain Drop Hop." Johnny LeGrande and his orchestra will furnish the music.

Nursery Group To Show Film January 20

"First Lesson," a film put out by the National Mental Health Board, will be shown at the regular monthly meeting of the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School, 701 E. Sierra Madre boulevard, Tuesday, Jan. 20, 8 p.m.

Dr. Chauncey Alexander, executive secretary of the Southern California Society for Mental Hygiene, will explain the film, which depicts the problems arising from the adjustment of the very aggressive child.

Although the film deals with a second grader, it is felt that parents will benefit from it because the problems of aggressiveness pictured are applicable to any age.

Dr. Alexander's wide background in mental health qualifies him to discuss this problem which many parents face. In addition to his present position, Dr. Alexander has served as a psychiatric social worker for the State Department of Mental Hygiene, with the U.S. Army Veterans' Service, and as consultant on the CARE program.

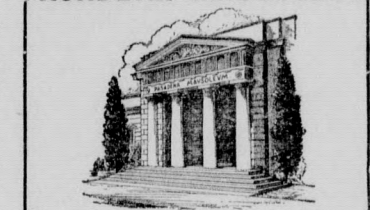

A discussion period and refreshments will follow the film. The public is invited.

P-TA Meeting Features Film Show Tonight

The Sierra Madre Parent-Teacher Association will hold its first meeting of the year tonight, Jan. 15, at 7:45 p.m. in the City School Auditorium.

MRS. DOROTHY TILLER

Mrs. Dorothy Tiller, M.S.W., will present the film, "Angry Boy," a release of the National Institute of Mental Health. Mrs. Tiller has been a resident of Sierra Madre for 10 years, and is a parent with children in local schools. At present she is a case worker at the Alcoholic Clinic of the Pasadena dispensary.

Because the guidance service of the Pasadena Dispensary has recently become available to residents of Sierra Madre through Family Service, PTA members will be particularly interested, as "Angry Boy" shows a typical case of a family needing help and the facilities offered. A question period will follow the film and commentary.

Howell N. White, Jr., president of the Sierra Madre City School Board, will present the facts to date concerning plans to increase school facilities. Howard Morgridge, architect with the firm of Marsh, Smith and Powell, will bring tentative plans, now under consideration by the board.

Hostesses for refreshments in the cafeteria will be the fifth grade teachers and parents.

LOCAL ARTISTS IN 'WHO'S WHO'

The 1952-53 edition of "Who's Who in Los Angeles County" carries the names of three Sierra Madreans: Alfred James Dewey, John Russell McCarthy, and Jose Drudis-Blada.

Drudis-Blada is mentioned for his work as a "Painting Artist." McCarthy is listed as a "Poet-Author" and Dewey is described for his work as "Artist."

The volume is "dedicated to those citizens who by unselfish efforts have meritoriously contributed toward the development of a better community and a greater Los Angeles County."

Fern, Begonias Featured at Garden Meet

Sierra Madre's garden enthusiasts met Monday evening for the first meeting of the new year, with a dinner at the Sierra Madre Woman's Club. Mrs. Sylvia B. Leatherman of El Monte gave an interesting and informative talk on begonias and ferns, illustrating with specimens from her gardens.

President of the local club, W. F. Schregardus, introduced the standing committee heads for the year: Mrs. H. D. Haas, refreshments; Mrs. Murray Owen, publicity; Mrs. Elizabeth Turner, sunshine; Mrs. C. W. Timmons, Pasadena Flower Show; Mrs. F. H. Morgan, hospitality; Mrs. F. E. Yeckley, coordinating council; Mabel A. Grill, table decorations.

The next meeting of the Garden Club will be Monday evening, Feb. 9, when Joe Littlefield, garden columnist, will be heard.

SACRAMENTO VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Beale of Sacramento have been visiting for the past week at the home of Mrs. Mary Kreuscher of 34 W. Grandview before journeying to Phoenix. Mrs. Kreuscher's son, Peter, and daughter, Alice Tarwater of Laurel avenue, have also shared in the visit.

FIRE FLAMES

Here we go! Entering a new year with the usual fond hopes that when December comes around we will be able to report a low fire loss. There is no question as to whether we like to fight fire or no. I think I'm safe in saying that it is a pleasure to answer a fire call and save some neighbor's home. In fact, it is exciting. But we would rather, far rather, report that we have passed another year without a heavy fire loss.

It is just a little difficult to convince old residents of the city that we are no longer a little village of 2500 or 3000 people. Even some of our civic leaders are blind to this fact. Few realize that they are still depending on the same fire equipment and number of men as they did "way back in" the good old days.

Some of those who enjoy standing at the sidewalk or curb to kid the volunteer firemen will enjoy this one. A teacher asked the pupil to correct the sentence, "Before any damage could be done the fire was put out by the volunteer fire brigade." The bright boy came back with: "The fire was put out before any damage could be done by the volunteer fire brigade."

This brings to mind an answer Mercer Duff gave to a fellow who got too curious. The inquisitive one wanted to know why the boys were always in such a hurry to get back to the station after a fire. Duff, who is ever ready with an answer, said, "Well, I'll tell you. If we don't get back before long, we forget what was trump."

Life has a way of evening things up. For every woman who makes a fool out of a man, there's another who makes a man out of some fool. And ain't that a fact?

The difference between a grove and a grave is only a matter of depth. The question is to decide when you are in a rut. If you stay by a job for advancement and things don't develop, then you are in a rut. If your expectations arrive, then you have been a great success. When there's a will there's a way—but where there are many wills, there's no way.

After a few days of almost summer weather, the firemen begin to think of the coming dry season and its danger of fire. However, summer is not the only season for fires, as our records now show. Resident fires are more likely to start in the cold weather when furnaces and fireplaces and such are in use.

There are many ways that fireplaces and furnaces can start fires. The open gas heater is another source of many fires. We must always be alert for fire.

PHILIP DEL VALLE, who lives with his wife and two daughters at 281 W. Carter, recently was announced by Arnold O. Beckman, president of Beckman Instruments, Inc., of South Pasadena, as their new Synchron-Division plant manager. Formerly a project engineer with Doelcan Corp., Newton, Mass., Del Valle's experience also includes work in design engineering with Ford Instrument Company and the contributing in a new test technique for gun drive and the installation of computers for naval vessels. The Ad Altare Dei Cross award was founded in Los Angeles in 1926. It is now a recognized national award. To qualify, Scouts must have progressed to First Class rating in Scouting and must have passed three preliminary examinations.

According to Monsignor Dolan, it generally takes two to three years of preparation by each qualifying Scout. The fourth and final examination

Van Iersel is a member of St. Rita's parish and served as president of the Holy Name Society last year. He is a past commander of VFW Post 3208.

He has been active in many civic affairs, including Boy Scout organizations and the National Guard.

During the ceremonies Jan. 20, Van Iersel will be seated near the President in the official reviewing stand at the White House. He leaves this Saturday by plane from San Francisco.

12, the Ways and Means Committee working for the proposed pool held a luncheon meeting, at which time it was learned through Judge John Mead and Dave Allen, that all donations to the swimming pool fund would be tax free to the contributors. Also, at that time, papers for the incorporation of the Sierra Madre Swimming Pool Association were signed and sent to other members of the forming association for signatures.

In line with the growing campaign for a new swimming pool, Kiwanis and VFW members will join the Lions' meeting tonight at the Woman's Clubhouse to discuss their cooperative plans for promoting the new recreational facilities that have been proposed for City Park.

You can make a wonderful gift to the Armed Forces by visiting the Red Cross Blood Bank at Woman's Club Jan. 21.

WATERHOUSE IS NEW E. K. WOOD MANAGER HERE

The E. K. Wood Lumber Company has announced Ernie Waterhouse as the new manager of the company's yard in Sierra Madre. Waterhouse replaces Veri Rhine, who has been transferred to company offices as manager in Van Nuys.

A resident of Sierra Madre since 1933, Waterhouse was employed by John S. Billheimer at the Sierra Madre Lumber Company when E. K. Wood took over in 1936. He stayed on to work for the new company at various locations, including a year at Long Beach Harbor in 1951 and four months in Indio last spring at which time he liquidated the company's yard there.

Waterhouse lives with his wife at 60 E. Bonita. The company's main offices are located at 4710 E. Alameda, Los Angeles.

IT WAS A "SNOW BOUND" TRIP FOR 80 YOUNG PEOPLE FROM THE SIERRA MADRE BETHANY CHURCH last Friday afternoon when they set out by bus and automobiles to Forest Home, approximately 15 miles north of Redlands. Not that anybody was actually snowbound, but they were bound to have fun in the snow—and did. During the Annual Snow Conference, attended by more than 300 young people from Bethany churches in the Los Angeles vicinity, they had their share of toboggan and ski sports in between special bible sessions that were held at intervals Friday evening through Saturday and Sunday. The conference has been a feature of the Bethany program for the past seven years. ### Service Group Continued by Local Support

Sierra Madre's Board of Family Service met last Saturday for early morning coffee at 8 a.m. in the home of Mrs. George Osborn, Mrs. Philip R. Woodworth, board chairman, announced a favorable response to recent Family Service letters that will enable the board to continue the support of its services.

"Although we are financially sound for the present," Mrs. Woodworth says, "we hope people will continue to help keep the service going, without our having to work on 'thin ice'." The board makes it possible for persons in need of confidential family counseling to visit the proper consultants through a contract formed last August with Pasadena Family Service. The board here underwrites the difference between the fee the applicant is able to pay and the actual cost of the interview. At no time are names or problems disclosed.

The local board consists of nine members, three of which retire each year to make room for the three new members who move in each May. Its next meeting is in March, at which time the board will appoint a nominating committee and make plans for the annual open meeting in May, when the public is invited to attend.

Wedding of Former Resident In Congregational Church

Mr. and Mrs. James Wilbur Houston, who were married in Sierra Madre Jan. 7, have returned from their honeymoon at Crestline and are at home in Inglewood where Mr. Houston is employed by North American Aviation. Mrs. Houston's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Connell, have returned to their home in Pensacola, Fla. They were here for the Rose Parade as well as their daughter's wedding, and for a visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert G. Seifert, 464 E. Highland. Mrs. Seifert and Mrs. Connell are sisters.

The new Mrs. Houston is the former Phyllis Connell and in 1941 attended school in Sierra Madre. At that time she and her mother stayed with the Seiferts while Mr. Connell was in Panama. Mrs. Houston and her new husband later attended high school together in Pensacola.

The Houston ceremony was performed by candlelight in the Congregational Church by the Rev. Carl C. Smith. Flowers decorating the church were white carnations and gladioli.

The bride wore a gown of ice blue satin with matching veil and a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and lilies of the valley. Her matron of honor, Mrs. Kenneth S. Pickett of Sierra Madre, cousin of the bride, wore a gown of pale yellow satin and matching Juliet cap and her bouquet was of coral fashion roses.

Raymond Berry of Inglewood was best man. Ushers were Edwin Jacobson of Sierra Madre and Frank Roberts of Duarte. Approximately 50 guests attended the wedding and the reception later in the evening in the Seifert home where white flowers also were used as decorations.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Connell wore a street length dress of royal blue silk shantung and her flowers were pink fashion roses.

Democrats Plan Year's Calendar At Meet Jan. 19

The Sierra Madre Democratic Club will meet Monday evening, Jan. 19, at 8 p.m. in Alfred Dewey's studio, 28 Windsor lane. The purpose of the meeting is to plan the club's activities for the coming year.

All local Democrats with ideas for the monthly bulletin are urged by Lee Shippey to attend. Shippey also has announced that a distinguished guest speaker is expected on that date, but because no confirmation of the matter has yet been made no definite announcement at present date can be given.

ANGELUS PANCAKE SUPPER SUCCESS

An attendance of 150 attested to the success Sunday night of the pancake supper sponsored, cooked and served by men of the Angelus Guild of the Church of the Ascension. Members and friends attending helped swell funds being raised to redecorate the Parish house.

The event was held in the Parish Hall and was the Guild's first such event. Ralph Meeder is president of the Guild, which will have a regular meeting tonight. Benediction at 7:45 p.m. will be followed by a card party at 8 in the Parish Hall. Mrs. Lowell Peterson, hostess for the evening, will be in charge of serving refreshments.

Mr. Houston's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Houston of Pensacola, were unable to be here for the wedding but an uncle and aunt of his, Mr. and Mrs. Rogers of Corona, were among the wedding guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman F. Vance of Duarte, former residents of Sierra Madre, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Charlene, to Donald E. Hedwall, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hedwall, 417 N. Mountain Trail. The couple have set their wedding date for March 14. Miss Vance has been a student at Monrovia Duarte High School. Hedwall, who served with the 40th Division in Japan, is a former student of Pasadena City College.

CARVERS HONOR ILLINOIS GUESTS WITH OPEN HOUSE

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Carver, 257 E. Montecito, held open house Sunday afternoon in honor of Mr. Carver's uncle, aunt and cousin, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Carver and Miss Lucille Carver of Canton, Ill., who are spending the month of January in Sierra Madre. During their stay here they are occupying the guest house at 31 E. Mira Monte. Canton, Ill., also is the former home of the hosts.

Among those who called at the Carver home Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Sloss, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sloss, Miss Louisa Laws and Miss Ella Riley, all of Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Danver and son, Larry, of Arcadia; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Zimmerman, San Gabriel; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Sloss and daughters, Margaret and Deborah, Long Beach, and Miss Fern Carter and Mrs. J. C. Biggers of Alhambra.

Woman's Club Plans Luncheon and Cards

Plans are nearing completion for the luncheon and card party to be held by the Sierra Madre Woman's Club at 12:30 noon Friday, Jan. 23, in the club house.

Mrs. Vern Eppard is heading the committee on arrangements, and has invited all members and friends to attend. Tables will be arranged for bridge and canasta.

Mrs. Percy Kortkamp is assisting Mrs. Eppard as co-chairman.

Members of the club participated in their first program of 1953 yesterday morning with a business meeting that began at 11 o'clock, followed by a luncheon with James Norman Hershey as guest speaker.

Hershey, a lecturer and radio artist, spoke on the subject: "As You Believe."

Mrs. E. W. Beutler presided at the business meeting, and Mrs. Dewey McGeary and Mrs. Lillian Sage were co-chairmen of the luncheon. Decorations were under the direction of Mrs. Hazel Preis.

Honeymooning in Mexico

Dr. Mary Jane Davey Wed To Dr. Griffith Barlow

Honeymooning in Mexico this week are Dr. Griffith C. Barlow of Glendale and his bride, the former Dr. Mary Jane Davey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Davey, 84 Monterey Lane, Sierra Madre residents for many years. On their return from Mexico the couple, whose wedding took place Saturday afternoon in the Congregational Church chapel, will make their home at 2939 El Roble drive, Glendale, and both will resume interning at Los Angeles County Hospital.

The ceremony Saturday was performed by the Rev. Carl Smith in the presence of approximately 50 friends and relatives of the couple. The chapel was decorated with baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums and pink carnations. Matron of honor and best man were Mrs. F. W. Wagner, Jr. of Arcadia and Dr. Gilbert Clarke of Los Angeles.

The bride wore a grey silk traveling suit and orchids. Background organ music preceded and during the ceremony was played by Mrs. Jean Autrey of Sierra Madre.

The wedding guests from Los Angeles, Pasadena, Glendale, Arcadia and Sierra Madre, were given an opportunity to extend their good wishes to the newlyweds at a reception later in the Davey home where Miss Myrtle Ball of South Pasadena, cousin of the bride, assisted in the serving of refreshments.

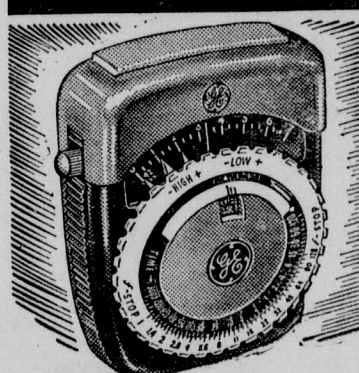

The former Dr. Davey attended Sierra Madre schools, Pasadena City College, and later the University of Southern California. Dr. Barlow also completed his medical training at the latter university.

Cling peaches canned in California have grown so popular in the U. S. that the state's pack jumped in a half century from about 800,000 cases in 1901 to nearly 14,500,000 in 1951.

A Poll of Girls and Birds Released to End All Polls

For people who enjoy statistics, and even for those who don't, here is a poll to end all polls.

California newspaper editors, asked to name what best symbolizes the beauty of America, consider our beautiful girls this country's most valued asset after the flag.

Nearly 150 editors responded to a questionnaire, naming the flag and the colors of the flag (33.6%) first, followed by beautiful girls (11.2%), mountain ranges (11.2%), and the American bald eagle (8.8%).

Rumor has crept in to the effect that the eagle, when interviewed, was shy—or indifferent—to the whole thing. Said he thought it was for the birds.

Pasadena Playhouse Presents 'Mikado'

Pasadena Playhouse rafters will ring with song as "The Mikado," famous Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, comes to stage-life under the co-producing banners of the Playhouse and Musical Arts Theatre. Opening night is slated for tonight, Jan. 15, and a star-studded set of principals, a chorus of 40, complete orchestra and ballet will bring a tuneful theatrical-change-of-pace to the Playhouse.

Sierra Madre musicians, Herbert Ingraham, cello, and Louis Sauter, violin, will play in the Musical Arts Theater orchestra that provides the musical accompaniment. The colorful and comic yarn, spun in words and music by Gilbert and Sullivan, brings memories of The Mikado, Koko, Pitti Sing, Yum-Yum, Nanki-Poo, Pooh-Bah and the famous and familiar characters of "The Mikado."

"A Wand'ring Minstrel," "Tit Willow," "Three Little Maids," and "The Flowers That Bloom in the Spring" are among the many melodies. Robert Dowty, Vernelle Wickland, Carl Olsen, Albert Dinnage, Diane Fontaine, Thelma Delp, Joyce Foss, Jack Woods, Charles McCallick and others head "The Mikado" cast, with Barbara Vajda as director and Edgar Moulton as musical director.

Former ARC Officer Spends Winter Here

Miss Claire Blachly of Wilton, Conn., who was executive secretary of the American Red Cross in East Chicago, Ind., until her retirement in June, has arrived to spend the winter in Sierra Madre with her close friend, Miss Aileen E. Owens, 174 E. Montecito.

Miss Owens and Miss Blachly had made their home together in East Chicago before their respective retirement. Miss Owens is a former teacher. They spend their summers in Connecticut.

1952 was the second worst polo year in Los Angeles County.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Matthews of Park Ridge, Ill., returned Monday by air to Chicago after a visit in the home of Mrs. Matthews' uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Annas, 84 S. Hermosa.

Traffic Deaths Are Likened to Epidemic

Commissioner Clifford E. Peterson of the California Highway Patrol has announced that California now has approximately 5,500,000 vehicles.

"About ten persons a day are dying in traffic here in California," he said. "If that many were dying in some sort of epidemic, we would all be up in arms. Let's be the same way about traffic deaths."

LOCAL MUSICIANS IN SYMPHONIC CONCERT JAN. 18

The San Gabriel Valley Symphony Orchestra, under the auspices of the San Gabriel Valley Symphony Association will present its third annual Children's Concert Sunday, Jan. 18, at 3 p.m. in the Monrovia Duarte High School auditorium, corner of Madison avenue and Colorado boulevard in Monrovia.

Sierra Madreans who are members of the orchestra are Herbert Ingraham, cellist; Mrs. Philip Mitchell, first violinist; and Rupert Pole, violist. Mrs. Mitchell also is treasurer for the symphonic organization.

Music to be played has been chosen to appeal, in a light, cheerful mood to children from the earliest age of musical appreciation to adulthood. As well as to entertain, this concert is planned to educate young listeners and to acquaint them more fully with orchestral instruments, the piano and the human voice.

Nearly every instrument in the orchestra will have featured or solo bits and will be identified by a narrator.

Don Porter, who is appearing currently with Mario Lanza in "Because You're Mine" and "The Savage," will act as narrator.

THE CURVE AND THE TUSK, by Stuart Cloete. This novel has everything—tenderness, horror, charm, humor and information! You can call it a great love story, frightening, oddly romantic, or you can call it a hunting story, or you can call it a book about elephants. You will learn more about elephants than you can imagine!

The story has depth and richness, whether you like fact or fiction, whether you read for story or for style. The book epitomizes a whole philosophy, and took months of travel and research to write. The sections about life on the dark continent, the tribal customs and life both past and present are fascinating.

But this is to give only the leanest hint of the novel. Mr. Cloete is skilled in the art of satisfying the reader, is zealous in gathering detail, and knows his Africa better than most people of our time.

A CHINESE CHILDHOOD by Chiang Yee. If you have not read the beautiful books of Chiang Yee you have a treat in store—"The Silent Traveller in Edinburgh," its pictorial art has a fresh and unusual point of view. "The Silent Traveller in New York" is a beautiful book about New York, seen through the eyes of a peaceful, mildly philosophic Chinese artist with an enormous sense of humor, and new value on the sights he sees.

And now Mr. Yee's last book, "A Chinese Childhood," The Chinese artist-writer takes the wonder of richness of life with him in this memoir—it is human, gossip, tolerant and full of a rewarding happiness. These are books you will keep on your library table and turn to again and again.

Other books received at the library are: Non-fiction—In Search of Maturity, Kunkel; Morality in American Politics, Graham; Power of Positive Thinking, Peale; Magic Oil, Leeston; Court of Last Resort, Gardner;

Wine, Storm and Rain, Miller; Man, the Chemical Machine, Borek; Across the Space Frontier, Ryan; The Mustangs, Dobie; Easy Way to Make and Remodel Furniture, Daniels; Beauty Behind Barbed Wire, Eaton; Yachting Memories, Crane; Islands of Books, Powell; Road to Shalimar, Wells; Amazing Amazon, Price; Recollections of Three Reigns, Syson; Chinese Childhood, Chiang; My Island Home, Hall; Letters, Millay; Jan Christian Smuts, Smuts; Always the Mediterranean, Miller.

Fiction: Juniper Tree, Baldwin; River Garden of Pure Repose, Boynton; Curve and the Tusk, Cloete; Omnibus of Science Fiction, Conklin; Steamboat Gothic, Keys; Wonderful Country, Lee; World Over (short stories), Maugham; Time's Corner, Ross; Mother of the Groom, Ryan; Velvet Doublet, Street; House of Earth, Wilson.

Inventory To Be Made Of Air Force Reserve

The U. S. Air Force this week asked leading employers and industrial firms in Los Angeles and Orange counties for help in conducting a 12-week inventory of the Air Force Reserve beginning Jan. 21.

Industry leaders in the two counties have been asked that employees who are Air Force Reservists be allowed time off to be interviewed by a special Air Force team to determine their present reserve status and to bring their personnel records up to date.

After long-shot "Micoka" upset all the experts' opinions, "Rusty" raced to the "Pay" window to collect something less than $200 for his $4 investment, and upon his return to Sierra Madre the ice cream company with whom he does business raced a load of dry ice to substitute for the burned-out refrigerator.

As some innocent bystander commented: "Whether we like it or not, looks as if the racing reason is here—one way or 'other'."

NORMAN ROCKWELL, one of America's most famous illustrators, is shown visiting with the models he used for one of the pictures appearing on a 1953 calendar devoted to Ford Motor Company's 50th anniversary. He found these models—which appear in the calendars still being given away by Sierra Madre's Ford dealer, Carl Hansen—among his neighbors in Arlington, Va. Posed at left is the late Henry Ford, when he was a watch repairing boy of 10 years, is Robert DeBlock, 12, seventh grade student at Arlington Memorial School, Rockwell chose Bernard Cullinan, custodian at the Arlington school, to depict a neighbor visiting Mr. Ford's work shop. The calendar is in full color, portrayed in detailed human interest in the true Rockwell tradition. Although Ford Dealer Carl Hansen has distributed most of his supply through his regular mailing list, a few still are available to those who call for them at 120 W. Sierra Madre boulevard.

The Racing on That Day Was Not All At Santa Anita

Alex Retsuk, better known in Sierra Madre as "Rusty" of "Rusty and Anne's Malt Shop," experienced one of the most eventful New Year's days of his career when he got "hot" at the race track on that date at approximately the same time that the storage refrigerator got hot—much too hot—in his shop.

While "Rusty" was taking a brief, hard-earned vacation at Santa Anita, two young men by the names of Arnold Richter and Bob Annas were strolling by the Malt Shop. When they saw smoke pouring from the store they ran into the street at Baldwin near Sierra Madre boulevard to stop Fire Chief Jim Heasley, a police officer who was cruising the area in a police car.

Heasley grabbed a fire extinguisher from the car and investigated the fire. When he decided it was serious enough to call the Volunteer Fire Department, he put the call through by police radio.

At about this same time, in the early afternoon, "Rusty" picked a long-shot named "Micoka" to win in the second race. After leaving the $2 window, he found a dollar bill at his feet. Thinking this might be a lucky omen, he put another dollar with it and bought a "place" ticket, wagering that "Micoka" would finish at least second in the race.

Within the same period the Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department raced to "Rusty's" Malt Shop, "Rusty's" horse raced to the finish line ahead of the pack, and when the Volunteers discovered that Fire Chief Heasley already had extinguished the blazing motor of "Rusty's" refrigerator, they raced back to their TV sets to watch the Rose Bowl game, and Heasley raced away in the opposite direction to avoid their wrath at being needlessly disturbed on their holiday.

After long-shot "Micoka" upset all the experts' opinions, "Rusty" raced to the "Pay" window to collect something less than $200 for his $4 investment, and upon his return to Sierra Madre the ice cream company with whom he does business raced a load of dry ice to substitute for the burned-out refrigerator.

As some innocent bystander commented: "Whether we like it or not, looks as if the racing reason is here—one way or 'other'."

Readers for the afternoon's program will be Mrs. Harry A. Pride and Mrs. M. H. Harris.

Scanning the Sports Scene

With Bob Brogger

The Junior High basketball league is half over, and it looks very good for the Marshall cagers, but not too promising for the Wilson men. In the "A" division Marshall is the only undefeated team, with a record of 3 wins. In the "B" division Marshall places fourth, with a record of 2 wins and 1 lost.

Over at Wilson they're having a rougher time. The Wilson "A" team is sitting in fifth place with a record of 1 win and 2 losses. Last week the "A" team lost to a tough Elliot team which was called by Johnny Douglas as a "slight slaughter."

The Wilson "B" team isn't exactly the best team in the league either. We're sorry to say that they are placing seventh. (There are seven teams in a league). Although the "B" team might not make it, the "A's" still have a fighting chance for the championship.

As we predicted, Henry Aguilar and Tony Pascoe are the main factors for the Marshall victories this season. Henry is the top scorer on the team, while Tony is coming up fast, right behind him.

Any of you Marshallites remember Sam Saghomonian? Well, he is now the new gymnastic coach at P.C.S. Sam used to teach at Temple City Junior

Former Resident Dies in Burbank

Friends here have learned of the death Dec. 10 of John Jamieson "Tim" Eaton, former Sierra Madre resident, in his home in Burbank. Mr. Eaton was active in American Legion affairs during his years in Sierra Madre.

He is survived by his wife, Mildred.

High, and at Marshall as an English and Social Studies teacher. He's real handsome, and was well liked at Marshall. Just a warning to the gymnasts who are going there next year. Ha!

Looks as if the Kramer-Sedgeman tennis matches have inspired local Sierra Madreans. The joke is on you when you try to enter the courts on Saturday and Sunday. Its not too bad after school, but oh me, on weekends! Don't tell anybody, but if this keeps up we might get some new tennis courts.

New Civil Service Exam Open to Women

CITY COUNCIL

local TV companies that try to bring better television reception to Sierra Madre.

Much of the council's time in the lengthy session was spent in discussions of zone changes and sick leave pay for policemen. The defining of eligibility for sick leave pay became so complicated that once again the city attorney was asked to take over. Cornyn was instructed to study the facts that they might be clarified before the council is asked to reconsider the subject.

The public hearing on R-1 to R-1-L zone change was summed up in a motion by Councilman Noren Eaton who made the motion that the recommendations of the Planning Commission be adopted on the conditions that areas shown on the map, and in accordance with descriptions, be approved excepting that "there be added and included in the R-1-L all property lying north of that portion of Auburn avenue, running east and west, with the exception of tract 5202."

Tract 5202 extends along Auburn east and west where Auburn takes a right-handed turn up to Hermosa. Included in the motion was the instruction that the city attorney prepare a suitable ordinance. The motion was seconded by Councilman Murray Hawkins, and passed by the council.
